If more than one year has passed since the date the contribution was received, the excess contribution shall not be adjusted.

004 Insufficient Contributions

004.01 Active Members

(i) If NPERS determines that a retirement system has received insufficient contributions from an active member or employer, or both, NPERS shall require the member and/or the employer to remit additional contributions.

(ii) Except as provided in 004.01(iii), additional employee contributions required under this regulation shall be picked up by the employer through an irrevocable payroll deduction authorization, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code. The employer shall pay these employee contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the employee.

- (ii) If NPERS determines that a retirement system has received insufficient contributions from an employer of an inactive member, NPERS shall require the employer to remit additional contributions as necessary to make up the insufficient employer contribution.

005 Overpayment of Benefits

005.01 If NPERS determines that any member has received a retirement benefit that is in excess of the retirement benefit such member is entitled to receive under the governing statutory provisions, NPERS shall offset future benefits as necessary to recoup the overpayment, with interest. In lieu of future offsets, the member may repay the overpayment immediately, with interest.

005.02 Reductions in future benefit payments pursuant to this regulation shall not exceed twenty-five (25) percent of the monthly retirement benefit received by the member unless the member agrees, in writing, to a greater offset.

006 Underpayment of Benefits

006.01 If NPERS determines that any member has received a retirement benefit that is less than the retirement benefit such member is entitled to receive under the governing statutory provisions, NPERS shall immediately make payment equal to the deficit amount plus interest.

008.02 The notice required by this regulation shall be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of the member, employer, or other affected person as reflected by the records of NPERS.

008.03 All notices of proposed adjustments shall advise the affected parties of their right to protest and appeal the proposed adjustment and the right to a formal hearing before the Board or its designated hearing officer.

009 Appeals

009.01 If a member, employer, or any other person affected by a proposed adjustment feels that such proposed adjustment is erroneous or improper, such member, employer, or other person may file a request for hearing. If the member, employer, or other affected person files a protest within 30 days of the date notice of the proposed adjustment was mailed, NPERS shall suspend making the adjustment until after the formal hearing and a final decision is rendered by the Board. If no protest and request for hearing is received by NPERS within such 30 day period, NPERS shall proceed to make the adjustment.

009.02 All hearings shall be held in accordance with the appeal procedures established by the Board under Title 303, Chapter 12, and the Administrative Procedures Act.
